THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

and to celebrate it the shah holds a brilliant levee at the palace, receiving all the dignitaries and diplomats, and giving presents to all the court and government officials. The Feast of Nooruz marks for thousands of years the entry of the sun into the zodiacal sign Aries, which occurs in the dawn of a new year and the first day of spring. At 6 o'clock this morning this astronomical change took place.

The feast is celebrated for fourteen days, during which new garments are worn, visits exchanged and entertainments and sports continued. On the fourteenth day the entire population of every Persian city and village leaves town and goes to the green fields—for in Persia the spring is always already in evidence and many a flower is in bloom. That event symbolizes the shaking of the winter dust in the light of the spring sun, and the renewing of the covenant with the youthful green fields, now freed from the blight and frosts of winter.

King Jamshyd, whose glory was sung by Sor-ad and Omar Khayyam, and is whose name Persepolis was built, is the ancient king who revived the celebration of this immortal feast. As on Nooruz, the hours of day and night are equal, this equality symbolizes a union of all, rich and poor, old and young, in the celebration of the feast.

The largest social affair of the week at St. Augustine was a dinner given at the Ponce de Leon, Thursday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harding, Mrs. Edward Sumner, Mrs. George Fletcher, Charles Thorne, Reginald White and Joseph Bushnell. The latter part of the evening was spent in the rotunda, where several tables of bridge formed the entertainment.

A pleasant time was spent Tuesday evening, March 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carver, 601 L street southeast. At a birthday party given in honor of their son, Master Howard, games and other amusements were indulged in. Refreshments were served in the dining room, the table being decorated in red and white carnations. Mrs. Carver, who acted as the hostess, was ably assisted in the evening by Mrs. H. M. Carver, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Elgin, Miss Lucy Garner, Miss Katherine Burns, Miss Rose Woodfield, Miss Mary Louise Thomas, Miss Elsie Carter, Miss Emma Livesey, Miss Bernice Winkelman, Miss Elsie Shantz, Miss Elsie Wormsey, Miss O. A pretty at-home wedding was performed last evening when Miss Inez D. Parker and Mr. Ralph B. Fletcher were married by Rev. H. H. Thompson of Waugh M. E. Church. The parlor and drawing room were profusely decorated in white roses. The wedding party assembled to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Janet Walker. The bride wore white satin with lace and pearl trimmings, a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss R. T. Evans, matron of honor, and Miss B. Florine Walker and Miss Emily P. Rider, bridesmaids, all in blue crepe material and shadow lace, with bouquets of pink roses and pink sweet peas. The bride's mother wore a black lace gown and carried white violets. The groom's mother wore a wistaria gown, and carried a bouquet of pink and lavender sweet peas. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. R. B. Parker. Mr. Joseph T. Sherier was best man. A wedding supper and reception followed the ceremony. SOUTHERN LUMBER MEN HOLD ANNUAL SESSION

North Carolina Pine Association Meets at Norfolk. Reports Made.

NORFOLK, Va., March 21.—The North Carolina Pine Association, representing lumber investments of between $65,000,000 and $75,000,000 in eastern Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and South Carolina, met here today in twenty-third annual session. The attendance was large.

President Horton Corwin, Jr., of Edenton, N. C., in his annual report and address, urged closer co-operation and frequent consultation among lumber manufacturers with cost and condition comparisons, which he believed would greatly benefit the trade.

Loss Due to Bad Weather.

Secretary and Treasurer W. B. Roper of Norfolk estimated, in his annual report, that the curtailment in production forced upon the manufacturers of the association by stress of weather during the last three months had amounted to 60,000,000 feet.

Mr. Roper outlined plans looking to systematic investigations into the manufacturing cost of lumber, the idea, as he explained, being to inaugurate a campaign of education with the view to ascertaining the cause of wide divergence among manufacturers in the general cost of production.

Members Submit Reports.

John M. Gibbs spoke on the "Utilization of Waste." C. I. Millard submitted the reports of the committee on "Trade Relations" and "Costs and Values." George W. Roper submitted a report on "Inspection." Officers and directors will be elected at the afternoon session, which will be followed by the annual banquet tonight.

Horton Corwin, Jr., will be re-elected president, with R. J. Camp as vice president from Virginia; A. R. Turnbull, vice president from North Carolina; and W. B. Roper, vice president from South Carolina, and W. B. Roper of Norfolk, secretary and treasurer.

The principal address of the afternoon will be by J. S. Holmes, state forester of North Carolina.

Marie and Helen Belt in Recital.

Miss Marie Estelle Belt, a young pianist of this city, gave a piano recital at the Columbia Theater yesterday afternoon, in which she was assisted by her younger sister, Miss Helen Walton Belt, violinist. The program, which was not lengthy, included simple selections from Beethoven, Gade, Chopin, Bach, Lisinsky, Tchaikovsky and Grieg. The young violinist, scarcely as yet within the range of criticism, played her selections with composure and self-confidence, and shared with her sister in the generous applause bestowed. Both the young virtuoses were literally showered with flowers.

INTRUDER IN MASQUERADE.

Takes Flight When Sheridan Apartment Janitor Seeks Policeman.

John Fisher, janitor of the Sheridan apartments, 1513 22d street northwest, thinks a man in woman's attire gained access to the building last night by using a duplicate key to open a screen door.

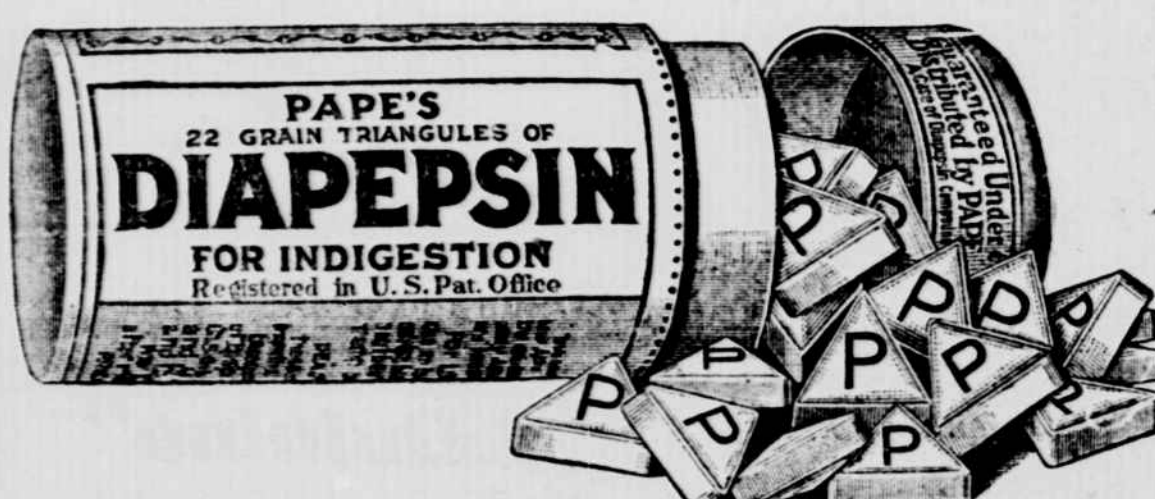

Fisher encountered the intruder and the latter hastened to explain that she, or he, "came to see about a piano."

While Fisher was hunting for a policeman the intruder fled. Fisher described the supposed burglar as being colored and about thirty years old, with a wart on the right side of the nose.
